

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, May 30

2001

Marshall welcomes Space Command officials Thursday

Lt. Gen. Roger G. DeKok, vice commander of Air Force Space Command at Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado, will visit Marshall Thursday. He and accompanying staff officers will receive the Center overview briefing and discuss the Integrated Space Transportation Program, Space Launch Initiative and X-vehicles.

Tickets for Robert McBrayer's retirement reception Thursday are available through admin officers

Safety & Health makeup training 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Thursday. Civil servants should send an e-mail to Pat Schultz

North parking lot at NSSTC closed during construction

During annex construction at the National Space Science and Technology Center (NSSTC), the north parking lot will be closed. If visitors are unable to find parking in the south parking lot, additional parking is available in the northwest and upper south parking areas, accessible from Bradford Drive north of the NSSTC building. This entrance is open 7:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. All other outside doors require key cards.

Phone numbers change for some OAO personnel

The 730- phone numbers used by OAO Corp. personnel located offside have been replaced with 319- exchange numbers. The online phone directory is being updated with the new numbers.

Check out status of International Space Station on the Web at: <http://scipoc.msfc.nasa.gov>